

United States Patent

Morris et al.

[15] 3,660,134

[45] May 2, 1972

[54] INORGANIC MATERIALS SURFACE
REACTED WITH ORGANO TITANIUM COMPOUNDS

[72] Inventors: Horton H. Morris; James P. Olivier, both of Macon, Ga.

[73] Assignee: Freeport Sulphur Company, New York,
N.Y.

[22] Filed: Oct. 30, 1969

[21] Appl. No.: 872,730

[52] U.S. Cl. 106/308 Q, 106/288 B, 106/299,
106/300, 106/309

[51] Int. Cl. C09c 3/00

[58] Field of Search 106/288 B, 288 Q, 299, 300,
106/308 I, 308 O, 308 F, 309, 260/429.5

[56]

References Cited

UNITED STATES PATENTS

2,621,193	12/1952	Langkammerer.....	260/429.5
3,025,172	3/1962	Bernstein.....	106/308 Q
3,025,173	3/1962	Bernstein.....	106/300
3,432,323	3/1969	Wigginton.....	106/308 Q

Primary Examiner—James E. Poer

Attorney—W. Philip Churchill

[57]

ABSTRACT

Inorganic materials in particulate or fibrous form the surfaces of which have been reacted with an organo titanium compound are described. The products are particularly suitable as fillers in solvent coating compositions and as settling aids for oil.

8 Claims, No Drawings